Dear

Accompanying this note are the two lists about which we conversed on the phone this morning.

As you can see, in the Albanian list we have given the name found on the 1:250,000 in the first column and all variants in the second. In two cases where the names were not found on the 250,000, our recommended name heads the list of variants. In the case of the White Drin River, two names were found on the 250,000--Drin i Bardhe and Beli Drin; the latter name is used in Yugo Slavia and the former is the name found in Albania.

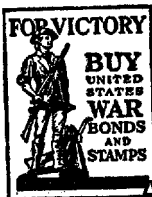

The Bulgarian list was compiled from the OSS map of roads and railroads of Bulgaria. Only those names north of the area covered by the 250,000 have been given.

Sincerely yours,

Burton W. Adkinson
